

Isfahan

November 2015: We leave Shiraz on a journey to Isfahan with stops on the way in Pasargadae and at a truck stop for lunch.

Pasargadae was Cyrus the Great's Capitol and his burial place. Cyrus lived in 600 BCE and was the founder of the Achaemenid Empire.

The Persians call Isfahan "Nesf-e-Jahan" meaning "Half The World". With one of the largest public squares in all the world, stunning architecture and tree-lined boulevards it is truly beautiful.

Cyrus the Great Tomb

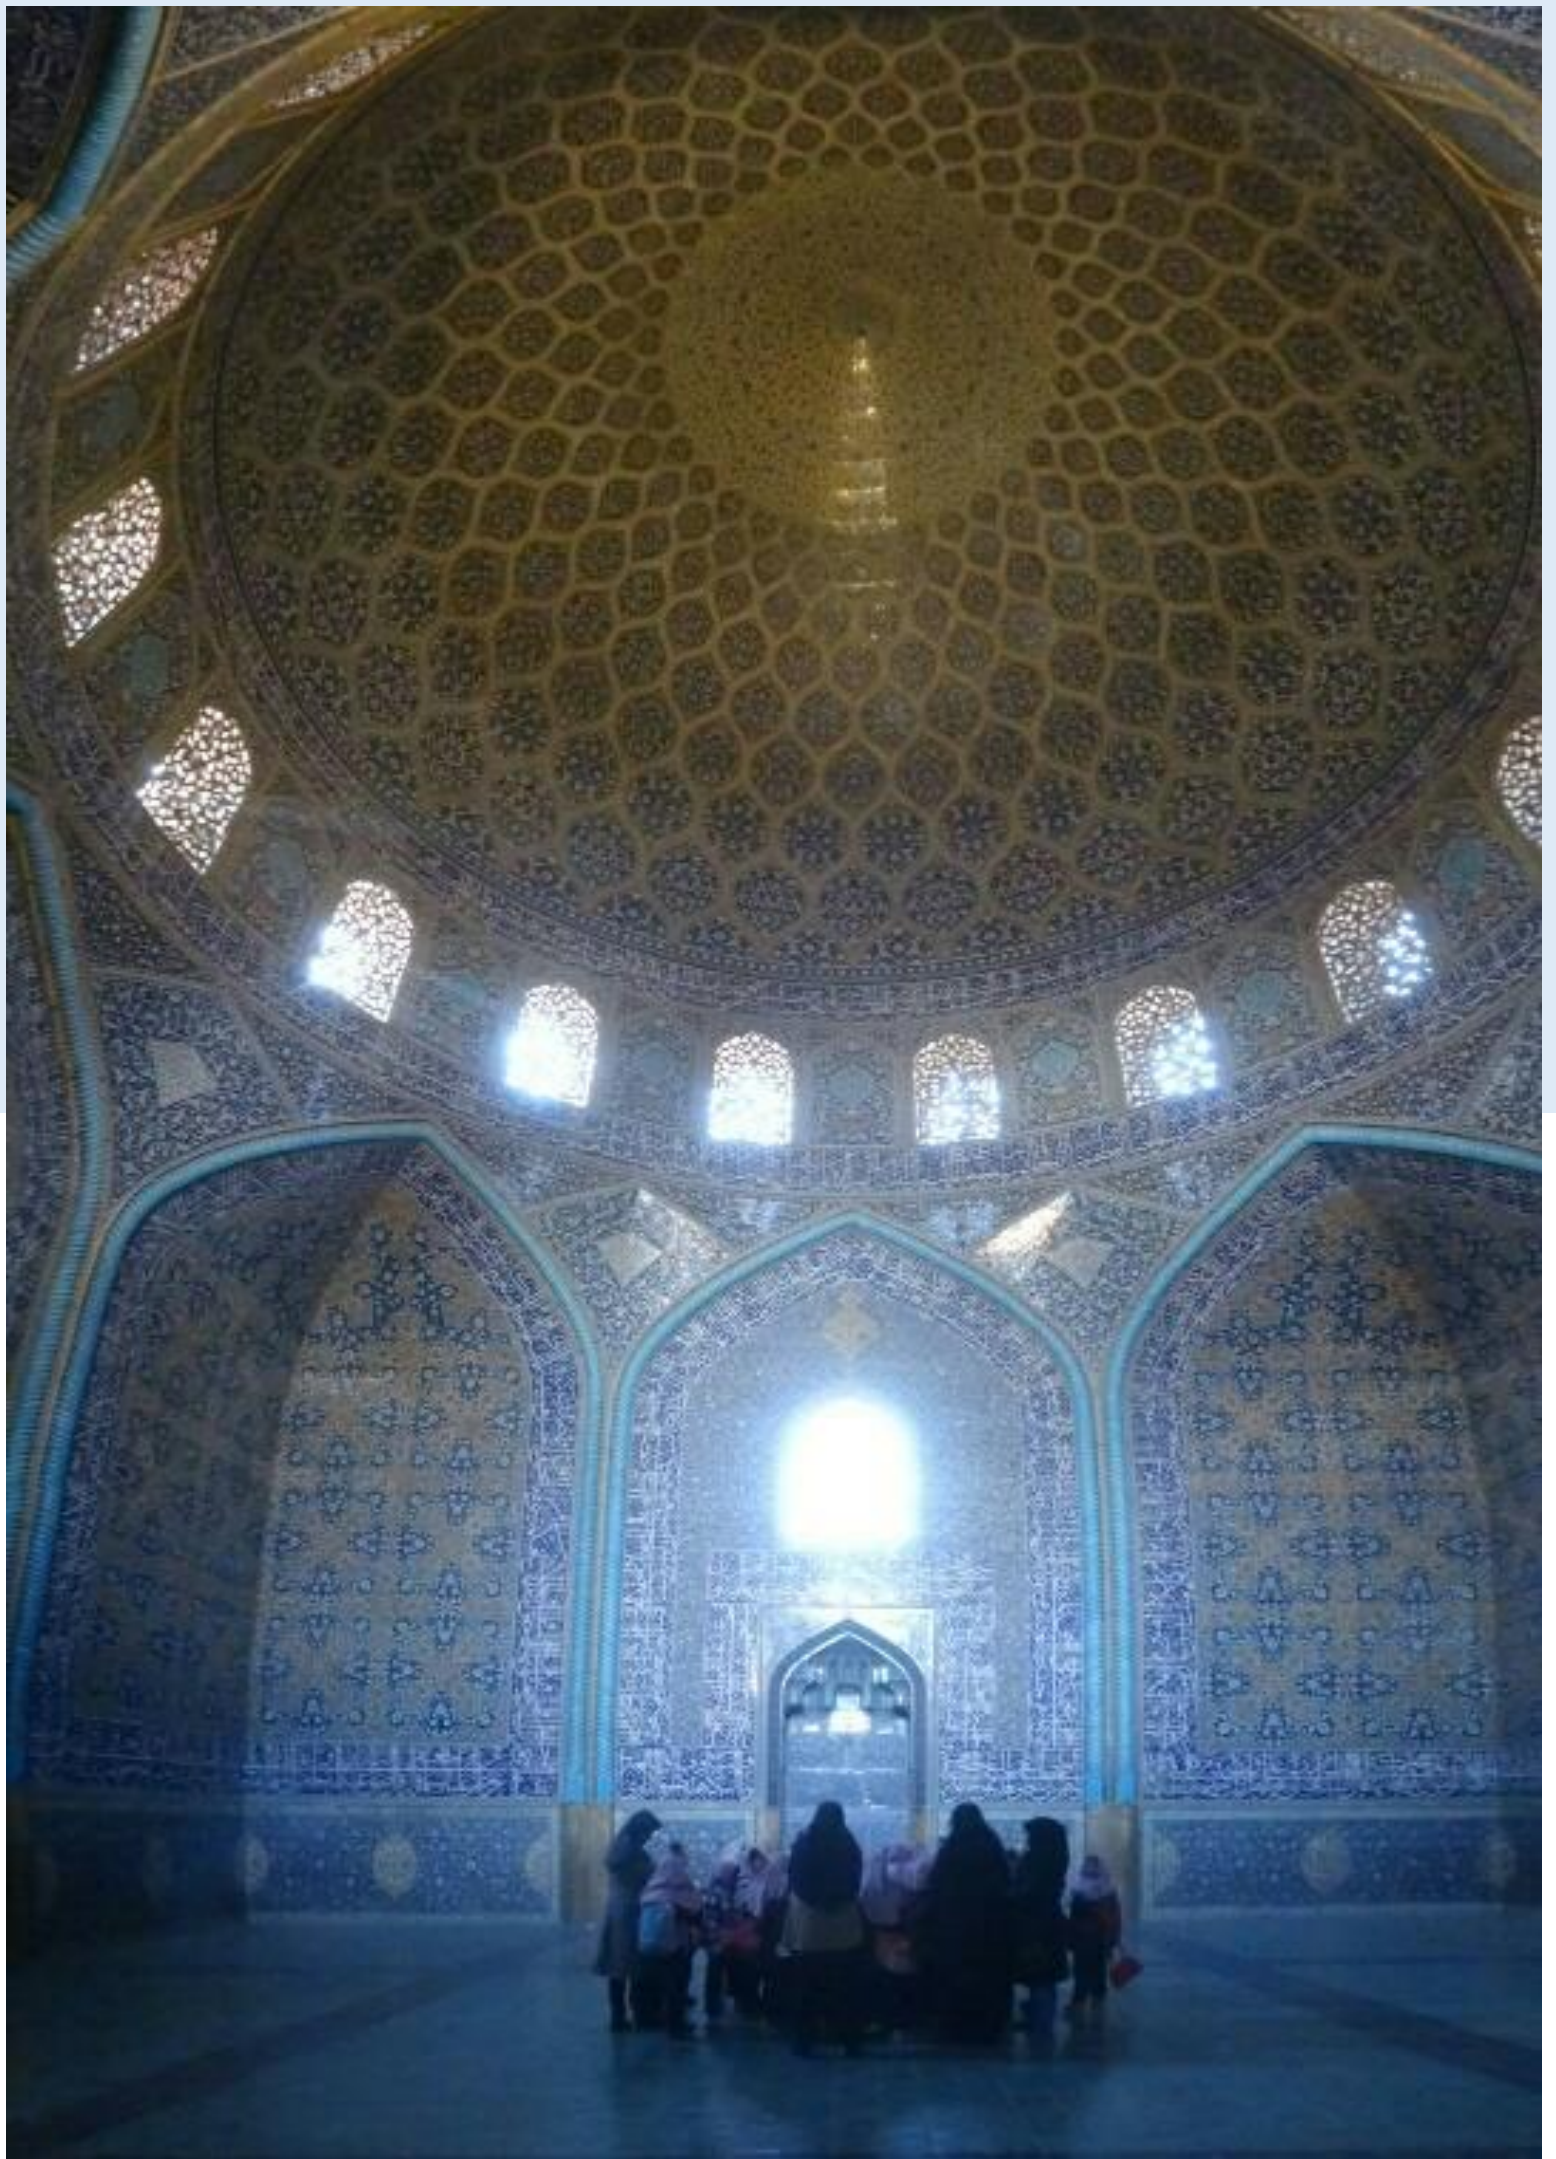

Truck Stop Lunch

Naqsh-e Jahan Square

Naqsh-e Jahan Square

Sheikh Lotfollah Mosque

Imam Mosque

Si-o-She Pol Bridge

Si-o-She Pol Bridge

Vank Cathedral

Lunch in Isfahan