

Meteora, Greece

December 2015: Setting in the middle of Greece above the cities of Kalabaka and Kastraki is the UNESCO World Heritage Site Meteora.

Translated as "suspended in air" or "the heavens above," Meteora consist of a range of rock pinnacles topped with 24 Eastern Orthodox Monasteries dating from the 14th century. Six of these monasteries survive today.

Kastraki

Meteora

Kalabaka

Great Meteor Monastery

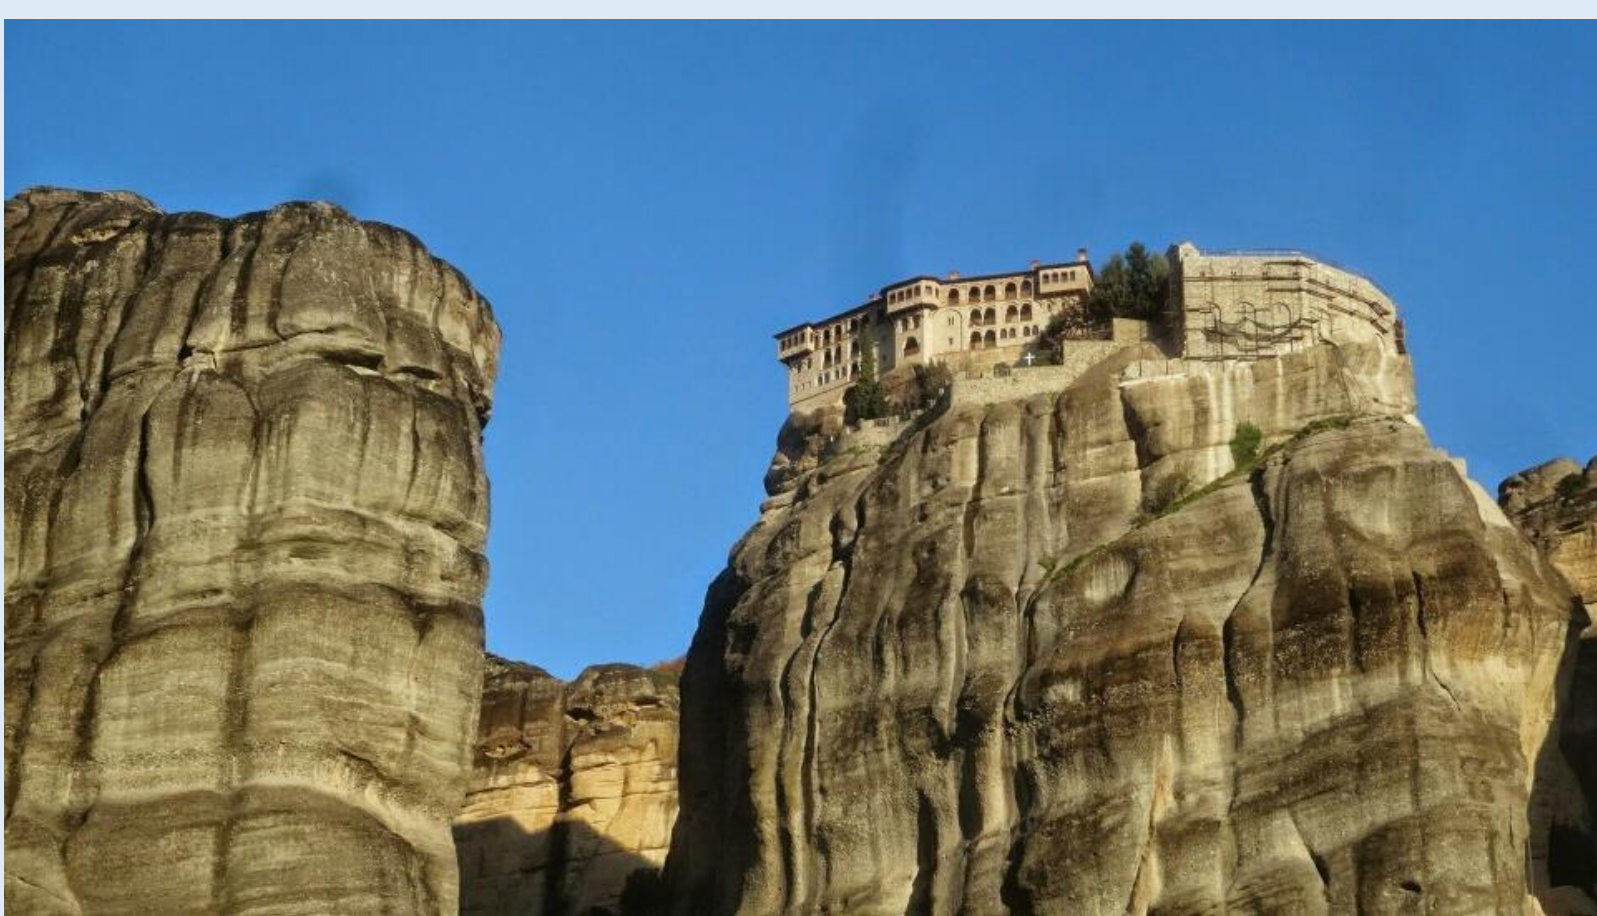

Inside Great Meteor Monastery

Holy Trinity Monastery

Monastery of Rousanou

Monastery of Varlaam

Saint Nicholas Monastery